The Association

Background:
The Kingston College Old Boys’ Association USA, Inc. (KCOBA) is a not-for-profit (IRS Code 501(c)3) organization formed in 1982 and incorporated under the laws of the State of New York in 1984. Its members are predominantly former students of the all boys’ school Kingston College, in Jamaica, West Indies. The term “Old Boy” is the British equivalent of “Alumnus” in the USA, and underscores the residual influence of Britain on Jamaica’s educational system.

Mission:
The mission of KCOBA is to be an advocate and reliable resource of financial and material aid for Kingston College. This will be achieved through the following:

• Promoting the interest of Kingston College and those who attended that institution;
• Upholding and perpetuating its teachings;
• Promoting a better understanding of, and an appreciation for the cultural heritage of Jamaica;
• Developing economic and social ideas for the betterment of the human family in general and Kingston College Old Boys in particular; and,
• Conducting fund-raising activities to accumulate financial resources to assist needy students and underwrite the cost of special projects at Kingston College, and support deserving local charities in the USA.

Vision:
KCOBA will ensure that Kingston College continues to be a beacon of hope for its student population. Computer literacy will be insisted upon, as we believe that this is fundamental to being successful in this third millennium. Kingston College must maintain its tradition of being an inexhaustible student reservoir of excellent scholarship and good moral character from which Jamaica’s future leaders will emerge.

Operations:
A Twenty three (23) member Board of Directors comprising a President, two Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, 18 Directors and 5 Life Directors currently coordinates the activities of KCOBA. Membership is open to all former students of Kingston College and Board-approved members of the public. Annual membership dues of $50 (Member) or $25 (Associate Member) are required to authenticate membership and enjoy the attendant privileges. Since its formation, KCOBA USA Inc. has upheld its stated mission, providing Kingston College with science laboratory equipment, school neckties, sports equipment, scholarships, student awards, and recognizing dedicated and outstanding teachers and supporters of Kingston College. The Association has also provided assistance in the area of physical plant maintenance.

Tax Benefit:
All contributions to KCOBA USA Inc. are tax-deductible to the extent allowable by federal government laws.

Board Members are elected at the Annual Meeting of members in accordance with the by-laws. Officers are elected annually, while directors are elected for 2-year terms, unless filling an unexpired term. Consistent with NY State in which KCOBA is incorporated, there are no term limitations for either officer or director positions. Directors’ terms have been deliberately staggered to enhance continuity of the various activities of KCOBA. Life Directors are former presidents who attend board meetings at their pleasure. Committee chairpersons and specific portfolios are appointed by the president.
President’s Message

Greetings Fortis Family.

First let me welcome the KC Family, our friends and supporters to this our Thirty First Annual Reunion and Awards Banquet. I am grateful for the confidence you continue to show in me by affording me the privilege of leading this august body that is KCOBA USA Inc. I am proud to report tonight that the state of our union is good.

Tonight we honor three outstanding sons of Kingston College, without whose contributions our union would be less perfect. Basil Anderson came to KC in 1958 and has never left. For much of the past twenty years he has supported the Sciences, St. Augustine Chapel, Chapel Choir, Scholarship and Nutrition programs. Today he leads our drive to bring 21st Century Technology, Interactive Library and much needed classroom space to Kingston College. Maj. Michael ‘Q’ Bennett is more than a Lab Technician, Cadet Master and KC Historian. He has mentored generations of past students, positively influencing, changing and guiding their lives. Today he remains one of the most popular and approachable figures on the North Street campus, while continuing to serve his alma mater as a member of the Board of Governors. Livingstone Young by his quiet leadership has served KCOBA USA Inc. with dignity and integrity for many years. Through his dedication and service he has guided in excess of $100,000US to the Kingston College Development Trust over the years. Gentlemen, we honor and recognize you tonight for your service.

KCOBA USA Inc. continues to champion the causes my predecessors have held dearly for years. The scholarship program for students at KC has grown by 20%. Last year we provided thirty three (33) scholarships. This year we have expanded our contribution to forty (40) students. At this juncture I must make special mention of Professor Hugh Wilson, whose scholarship support is now in its third decade and the Stephenson Family who have made this expansion possible. This year we introduced “Fortis Care Backpacks” for our recipients, providing them with personal and school supplies. We continue to support students studying at UTech, UWI, Cuba and USA. We remain committed to the Nutrition Program, basketball, choir, football, prize-giving, table tennis, tennis, track and field and our Joyce Baxter Math Club. This year we combined our Annual KCOBA Presentation with awards to the students with the best passes and the most improved student. As fate would have it, all these students are beneficiaries of our Scholarship Program.

From humble beginnings with the thought being to upgrade the school libraries, a simple concept has now mushroomed into the KC Library and Technology Capital Campaign. Under the guidance of Basil Anderson and with the full and complete endorsement of the school and Principal Myrie, to date we have secured pledges in the amount of $230,000 of our goal of $302,650. We have scheduled a tentative date of June 30, 2014 to receive at least 50% of our campaign goal amount in order to authorize construction, but we need additional support in order to reach this starting line. Upon completion of the Douglas Forrest Building, Kingston College will have much needed additional classroom space, modern state of the art library and technology facilities.

Our beloved school is on the verge of establishing high water marks which Bishop Percival Gibson and Mr. Douglas Forrest would be most proud. All Old boys, friends and supporters now have an opportunity to support this high impact project to elevate Kingston College for the foreseeable future.

Fortis & thanks for the love and continued support.

Kingston College continues to provide a first-class education for students in Jamaica. This education encompasses more than the pursuit of learning through books and computers – but it certainly includes this element. Beyond the intellectual component, however, Kingston College seeks to promote the development of the whole man, with character-building, self-confidence, a charitable spirit, social understanding, and commitment to positive values being important hallmarks of the College product.

And, of course, the College man is famous for his commitment to his alma mater. If you scratch a KC Old Boy – from 1925 forward – you will see purple blood. If you converse with him for more than a minute, you will be regaled with stories of “Priest”, “Dougs”, “Mr. Johnno” and many other stalwarts, leaders who have built the foundations of the school and thereby created the basis for Kingston College’s prowess in many areas of life.

Tonight’s event organized by the New York Chapter of the KC Old Boys Association – under the careful guidance hand of President Bloomfield -- fits fully within the College tradition. As KC Old Boys meet to commemorate the past, celebrate recent successes and reflect on future prospects, we also meet to mark our commitment to promoting further progress at the school. We meet to offer support to our able Principal Dave Myrie and to the strong staff complement that keeps Kingston College on its forward march through history.

May Kingston College, and the Kingston College Old Boys Association, prevail in all their activities. Fortis Cadere Cedere Non Potest!

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD CHAIRMAN

Congratulations to the Kingston College Old Boys Association, USA Inc. as you host your 31st Annual Reunion and Awards Banquet to celebrate achievements and acknowledge contributions.

I also congratulate your Honorees this year, Basil Anderson, Michael ‘Q’ Bennett and Livingstone ‘Danny’ Young who have in diverse ways given service to your Association and to Kingston College. I thank them for their service. Theirs is the kind of dedication and commitment which is required of each of us in the Kingston College family.

Your Association continues to make an invaluable contribution to our alma mater and to the welfare of our students. On behalf of the Board of Management, I extend sincere thanks and appreciation. In doing so, I must mention the Kingston College Library and Technology project in respect of which you started a capital campaign in 2013. This project has the blessing of the Board and we do hope that your goal will be achieved. Such a facility will provide tremendous benefits to students and teachers and is consistent with our vision for the future development of the school. It would be a fitting achievement if it becomes a reality in 2015 as the school celebrates its ninetieth anniversary. I encourage all of your members to give their support to this initiative.

As we continue to make and implement plans to realise our mission to provide to our students an education that enables them “to reach their full potential and develop skills to become independent, self sufficient adults who will succeed and contribute to a global society”, I can report that we have made some progress in 2013. We have enhanced the physical environment through infrastructure improvement on both campuses, highlighted by a major renovation of Melbourne Park and an upgraded main entrance gateway as well as refurbished classrooms and air-conditioning of staffrooms at North Street. The year also saw significant improvement in academic performance with over 80% of the fifth form students achieving five or more CXC passes; seven students featuring in the top 10 in Jamaica in four subject areas for CAPE Units 1 and 2 and the unprecedented achievement of six students being admitted to the UWI Medical Faculty in the same year. No doubt your guest speaker, our Headmaster, Dave Myrie, will provide further information to you.

The Board of Management wishes for you a successful and enjoyable Banquet and looks forward to continuing to work with your Association and indeed all members of the Kingston College community as together we continue “building for the future”, the inspiring theme which you have adopted this year.

Fortis Cadere Cedere Non Potest

Michael Vaccianna
Chairman, Board of Management
It is a pleasure for me once again to be asked to send a message to the KCOBA New York Chapter, for your gala fund-raising event. I would also like to express a heart-felt gratitude to you as your continued support of you alma mater in time, talent and financial contributions knows no bounds. Your contribution to welfare, academics and co-curricular activities is not only timely but leaves a significant impact on the psyche of both staff and students. Your contribution is a telling example of what is possible when the Fortis motto becomes not only words of sentiment and nostalgia, but the energizing force to all that we do.

I am pleased to report that over the past eighteen months we have made some progress in the development of our school and in our resolve to improve the infrastructure of the School. A few of these achievements are highlighted below.

These purchases were made possible from generous contribution from Old Boys Associations and friends of Kingston College.
- The next phase of our infrastructural plan is the completion of the Douglas Forrest Building which will house a state of the art Library and Technology Centre. Your President (Perry) has taken on this initiative and has been doing an excellent job in securing commitment from stakeholders to ensure that the project commences in June 2014. We need full support for this project.

We have implemented our Development Plan and are seeing rays of hope and light, with green shoots that must be nurtured to ensure growth and maturity. However, we are mindful that to achieve the heights and standards that we have set requires a collective commitment to excellence by all stakeholders along with firm resolve to achieve desired results. This is a formidable task, but I am convinced that it is not insurmountable. The Fortis spirit summons us never to lose hope or yield because our objectives are achievable. Our objectives remain steeped in the vision of our founding fathers. The school remains committed to grooming our boys to become men who will be able to make a meaningful contribution to our country.

I would like to thank you once again for the role KCOBA USA Inc. continues to play and encourage you that with even greater input and effort we will make significant inroads in achieving the “heady heights” that we all seek. In this regard we will never yield.

The Kingston College Development Trust Fund (KCDTF) is very pleased to offer heartiest congratulations to the Kingston College Old Boys’ Association USA Inc. on the occasion of the publication of your thirty-first Annual Reunion Journal. The New York Chapter of the KCOBA deserves congratulations and thanks for their outstanding example and leadership in support of the Alma Mater over the years. The stature of the College and its successes are to a large extent due to the efforts of a supportive K.C. family kept robust mainly through the activities of the Old Boys’ associations.

Commendations are in order to President Rainford Perry Bloomfield and his executive for the recent launch of the Kingston College Library and Technology Capital Campaign which aims at completing the Douglas Forrest Building by 2015 with library, computer facilities and additional classrooms. The KCDTF has pledged its support and urges old boys and friends to give full support. We need to remind everybody that donations to KCOBA USA Inc. as well as donations to or through the KCDTF in Jamaica are tax deductible.

The KCDTF welcomes opportunities like the Annual Reunion Journal to repeat for the benefit of the K.C. family the purpose of the Trust and to give a brief update of its operations. The inviolable capital fund now stands at about J$54 million. The projects which were identified by the Board and funded by the Trust in 2013 were roof repairs at the Melbourne campus and to the staffroom at the North Street campus. K.C. loyalists must keep reminding prospective donors that the Capital Fund must be built up to provide interest income for significant school projects in perpetuity, also that donations qualify for personal tax rebate and funds invested by the Trust are free from tax on interest.

Kingston College, led by the new dynamic Headmaster, Mr. Dave Myrie, and the new Board Chairman, Mr. Michael Vaccianna, is poised for significant improvement in the near future. We pray for God’s blessing as we work to turn out young men with the vision and skills to transform societies and the world.

It is my pleasure to bring greetings to you Kingston College Old Boys’ Association on the 31st anniversary of your Annual Reunion and Awards Banquet.

Thirty one years is evidence of consistency and patience, hallmarks of success. Obviously, this is a trait that has been passed on over the years to this membership. It is borne out of the disciplines learned as students yourselves and is an example to the students on North Street. They themselves have made you proud by their achievements academically and athletically. So I add my congratulations to you and Kingston College as you celebrate 50 years of participating in the Penn Relays Carnival at Franklin Field in Philadelphia.

Your theme this year, “Building for the Future”, leads me to invoke a request that I find to be appropriate to Kingston College and our nation. As you celebrate, I ask that you pause for a moment and consider extending your support and join ranks with the other UJAA members to make a difference in advancing education in Jamaica. There is such a great need for collaboration in the Diaspora, particularly from the alumni associations, as we “build” more schools like Kingston College.

There is a strong belief among stakeholders in Jamaica and here in the Diaspora that the galvanizing of the alumni associations brings a greater impact to the education landscape. You can still remain loyal and committed to your school while you support the greater need to advance education. I have often said in messages like these that UJAA provides the opportunity, and the invitation is open to join the conversation. We will be calling on you.

In the meantime, tonight’s celebration relives your love, support and commitment to Kingston College. Congratulations honorees. Welcome Mr. Dave Myrie, principal and Guest Speaker.

Be assured of the continuing support of UJAA on whose behalf I extend best wishes for a successful evening and for many more years of continued success.

Thirty-first wedding anniversaries are marked by giving timepieces – watches, clocks - perhaps in recognition that the relationship has stood the test of time. Indeed, the New York Chapter of the KCOBA has stood the test of time! Thirty-one years of service to Kingston College, “the greatest school in the world”! Thirty-one years of camaraderie and memories of the Fortis Experience! Thirty-one years of inspiring the Fortis Spirit. So, today, KCOBA Jamaica is pleased to join you in celebrating your 31st Annual Reunion and Awards Banquet.

We congratulate KCOBA USA Inc. for once again gathering to share ideas, memories, have fun, raise funds and to recognize Fortis Excellence. Our heartiest congratulations to the awardees: Mr. Basil Anderson, Mr. Michael ‘Q’ Bennett and Livingstone ‘Danny’ Young – all distinguished KC old boys.

Fortis Cadere Cedere Non Potest • The Brave May Fall But Never Yield
Hope springs eternal…..Kingston College has influenced lives since 1925, the birth of Power Purple, the indomitable Purple Spirit, Fortis Always, Fortis Forever, Non Potest!! The hope that KC will continue to produce men of valor, upstanding and caring citizens ad infinitum is the wish of everyone in the KC family. This achievement depends on leadership at all levels of KC life but none more important than that of Principal Dave Myrie. It is therefore imperative that ALL KC Old boys, individually and collectively provide the total support required for success at Clovelly and Melbourne Parks. Those of us that have visited the school recently recognize that there is work to be done, the dustbowl we call a track and football field, the roughshod surface of the basketball court come easily to mind but the general outside appearance of the school, the well-dressed (all ties up to the neck!) and disciplined boys are promising signs of a school moving forward. The continued excellence in all spheres of school life, Schools Challenge Quiz, National Debating Champions, Under 19 Southern Conference Basketball and Corporate area Under 16 Table Tennis winners are good building blocks. I hear some of the rumblings but I’m confident we will also win the Big ones in the very near future (Jamaica Scholar, Champs, Football) but more importantly churning out well prepared Jamaican citizens EVERY year.

To this end KCOBA Florida again salutes the yeoman efforts of KCOBA New York for its stellar work under the leadership of the energetic Rainford Perry Bloomfield. Innovative thinking and dreaming big on KC’s behalf are always welcome and appreciated.

To the honorees (Messrs. Basil Anderson, Michael Bennett and Livingstone Young) we say “very well done” and the KC family entreats you to” carry on” with your invaluable contribution to KC life.

Fortis Cadere are we yes, also Cedere Non Potest, ALL for KC yes, yes, yes!

The CPA Never Underestimate The Value.®
think it is safe to say that the last few years have been some of the most progressive that Kingston College has seen in the recent past.

This is due, in no small part, to stalwart efforts by the Kingston College fraternity not the least of whom are the Kingston College Old Boys in New York. You have worked tirelessly, in conjunction with the other chapters and the school, to install, update and improve wherever necessary. Indeed many projects in recent memory have been spearheaded by your chapter. I think of the Nutrition Program as well as the Scholarship Program which both support and encourage many needy students at KC, and drive them to excel academically and in other extracurricular activities.

This year, as you host the thirty-first installment of your Annual Reunion and Awards Banquet, you have chosen to honour three fine individuals who’ve contributed greatly to the well-being of those around them.

Mr. Basil Anderson, Philanthropist & Distinguished Alumnus, Mr. Michael ‘Q’ Bennett, Distinguished Lab Technician and Mr. Livingstone ‘Danny’ Young, Distinguished Alumnus. These awardees complement a long list of honourees fully deserving of all the recognition they’ve received. On far too many occasions we’ve failed to recognize those who’ve toiled quietly doing good and wonderful things which have gone unnoticed. Your organisation endeavours to right that shortcoming.

We send you greetings and offer congratulations to the recipients this evening; and may this evening’s banquet prove to be your best yet. Under the proud leadership of Mr. Rainford “Perry” Bloomfield, the New York chapter has gone from strength to strength. Keep up the great work.

On behalf of the Kingston College Old Boys Association, Atlanta Chapter, I wish to congratulate KCOBA USA Inc., on its 31st Annual Reunion and Awards Banquet. The leadership of President Bloomfield and your board of directors play an important role in marshalling resources for the benefit of Kingston College (KC).

I wish to congratulate all the honorees who are being recognized for their achievements, hard work and dedication. Messrs. Basil Anderson, Michael ‘Q’ Bennett and Livingstone ‘Danny’ Young, you are a shining example for many to emulate.

Your theme for this year’s Banquet, “Building For The Future” is certainly in line with the direction of KC as the future of KC looks bright and promising. The commitment of our old boys and various chapters will play our part in making this theme a very rewarding pursuit.

We are certainly proud of the many achievements by KC over the past year. Amid the disappointments in some areas, we still emerged victorious in many other areas of sports and academia. The stewardship of Principal Dave Myrie and his staff have “turned the corner” in our quest back to the top. May our alma mater continue this climb to regain our top-spot as the all-conquering purple giants.

In closing, I hope you have an exciting evening and a very successful Awards Banquet.

Message From The Fortis Pavilion

On The Occasion Of The KCOBA USA Inc.
31st Annual Reunion & Awards Dinner

The Fortis Pavilion congratulates the Kingston College Old Boys’ Association USA Inc. (KCOBA), New York Chapter, on achieving another milestone. Your 31st Annual Reunion and Awards Dinner is very timely, as we celebrate the 89th birthday of our noble institution. This year notably, will highlight the 50th year of which Jamaican High Schools will be participating at the annual Penn Relays. We are proud and elated to acknowledge that the flag of Kingston College will be flown at all future staging at the Penn Relays. This is yet another testament highlighting the greatness of our achievers.

Our Founding Father and visionary, Bishop Percival William Gibson, and a host of other pioneers (too many to mention) facilitated the establishment and growth of our noble institution. Kingston College (KC) continues to produce quality men who have contributed, and who will continue to contribute to the shaping of their families, communities, and by extension, their country. The impact of KC Old Boys are felt not just here in Jamaica, but in New York, Florida, Atlanta, Toronto and the UK, makes us deeply indebted to our forefathers whose names and contributions will forever be etched in the annals of KC history. The successes of this great institution have not been achieved by chance, but through a well laid foundation and a voracious drive to be the best - the indefatigable Fortis spirit!! Next year marks the 90th anniversary of KC, and it is no secret that the Old Boys’ Association has been a central force in the preservation of the KC spirit and the Fortis fire, which have engulfed the Fortis Pavilion. The same fire which burns in your hearts and souls also burns in ours.

The Fortis Pavilion salutes the honourees, who dedicated their lives to keep the KC flag flying high. Your commitment to the development of our beloved alma mater cannot be questioned. Therefore, it is with great pride that we say well done! When all is said and done, we are all from the same place, and the work we do redounds to the benefit of Kingston College – the institution we cherish and love. Rest assured that the Fortis Pavilion stands ready to work alongside the KCOBA or any other group for the betterment of KC. We will continue to assist projects and programmes spearheaded by the KCOBA, and will continue to extend an open invitation to every Old Boy to come to our meetings to fellowship with us. Our key mission is to improve the network and net worth of all who have entered the hallowed halls of KC. We welcome all! We exclude none!

Thank you for giving the Fortis Pavilion this opportunity to share yet another great moment with you, our brothers. We are extremely proud of all chapters of the KCOBA.

The Fortis Pavilion will continue to work hard ensuring the great history of Kingston College is told and preserved and welcome the honour of being part of the many books and novels saluting Kingston College.

Fortis Cadere Cedere Non Potest - The Brave May Fall But Never Yield!

AS SEEN THROUGH THE LENS
The Journey

In 1962 the Fifty-second Inter-Scholastic Boys Championship (Champs) was held at the historic Sabina Park for the last time. The new venue - the National Stadium, opened in August 1962, has remained the premier location since 1963 except for closures in 1983 and 2002. At the time it attracted a record number of twenty-eight schools. In spite of inclement weather, adorned in white sweat suits, the Kingston College athletes treated spectators to a level of athleticism and brilliance, heretofore never seen in Jamaica, and accounted for eight of the ten records.

The captain, Alex McDonald, led the assault by winning the Open 880 yards in which the top four finishers broke the record and the two-minute barrier for the first time. With the conclusion of the newly introduced Open 4x440 yards Relay, Kingston College won all five relays and became the first school to reach and score over one hundred points (112.6).

This spectacular performance overwhelmed all, and Herb McKenley, Government Supervisor of Athletics, who had been unsuccessful in his bid to have the 1962 St. George’s College 4x110 yards Relay team compete at the Penn Relays, quickly saw that Kingston College’s sprint and mile relay teams, given the opportunity, could be primary contenders at this meet. His suggestion to try and gain entry to the meet, on such short notice, was supported by Mr. Douglas Forrest, Headmaster, and Mr. Eli Matalon, Board Chairman. Entry was eventually denied but valuable information and guide lines complete with time-lines, were provided with a strong encouragement to reapply the following year. The Journey had begun.

Mr. Forrest, ably assisted by Donovan Davis, Eli Matalon, Richard Ashenheim, Herb McKenley and Ken Doherty, Director of Penn Relays, completed the application process and after several tense months the long awaited approval was received. Kingston College was on its way and on April 21, 1964, a team of six athletes departed on an historic journey.

Kingston College, identified as Kingston College High School, arrived at the Penn Relays as favorites in the 4x440 yards relay and strong contenders in the 4x110 yards relay. On April 24, 1964 Kingston College’s quartet of Jimmy Grant, Rupert Hollette, Tony Keyes and Lennox Miller recorded a time of 42.6 secs. in the heats of the 4x110 yards relay (Championship of America, High School Division). This was equalled in another heat by New Rochelle; the time of 42.6 was the fastest time recorded in the heats. On that Saturday April 25, 1964 the temperature was in the low forties. Just before the start of the final of the 4x110 yards relay Coach Davis gathered his team’s sweat suits and hurriedly made his way into the stands to witness his boys sprint into the annals of history. Kingston College lead-off runner Jimmy Grant handed the baton off to Rupert Hollette in 5th position; Hollette made up some ground before passing the baton to Tony Keyes in 4th position; Keyes ran an unbelievable 3rd leg giving Kingston College the lead for the first time; anchor Lennox Miller had a comfortable lead; history was in the making, but with some yards to go Miller grabbed his right leg. Huntington of Virginia was closing in fast. Miller fought off the pain and placed Kingston College and Jamaica into history (42.7).

These pioneers made Kingston College and Jamaica proud. We salute them. Fortis Cadere Cedere Non Potest.

EYES ON THE PRIZE

Though life’s trials
and expectations seems unfair -- heartaches and sorrows everywhere.
When hearts fill up with grief and love ones can find no relief -- remember, the Cross is a symbol of hope and love
so what mortals see as loss may well be redemption above.
Remember your safe harbor
in times of trials and the Light which is the Lord who leads

Fortis!

It is with immense pleasure that I write as a proud member of the Kingston College family, and also on behalf of all the people I represent in the 58th Assembly District, to extend our warmest and best wishes to the Kingston College Old Boys’ Association, USA, on the occasion of our 31st Annual Reunion Awards Dinner.

This year’s theme, “Building for the Future” is fitting, as we will this evening celebrate the culmination of our KC Library and Technology Campaign. The campaign, which has raised nearly one quarter of a million dollars, will complete the Douglas Forrest Building, provide libraries, technology resource centers, classrooms and teacher incentive programs on both KC campuses. The additional space will allow KC to retain its brightest students, who due to space limitation, were often turned away from completing their sixth form at KC.

Most importantly this project will guarantee that future generations of KC Old Boys can, and will compete in this global village in which we all now reside. No school, in any part of this globe, can afford to not put in the hands of their students the technology which will allow them to excel in the fields of science, technology, engineering, and math. Investing in the education of our youth is the single greatest investment we can make in our future, and by allowing KC to accommodate the students seeking the most technological advanced, engaging and immersive educational experience will insure that our motto of Fortis Cadere Cedere Non Potest, will echo across the globe for generations to come.

It is with great delight that I offer my congratulations to tonight’s distinguished honorees, Basil Anderson, Michael ‘Q’ Bennett, and Livingstone Young. Also, I offer a warm K.C. welcome to our guest speaker Principal David Myrie. All of these outstanding and distinguished honorees exemplify all that Kingston College and our alumni association stands for, never yielding to doubts and obstacles that may get in our way in order to maintain our alma mater as the educational crown jewel of Jamaica. For that I applaud you all.

Congratulations to all Old Boys on our efforts to promote our alma mater, and allow me to acknowledge and commend the very hard-working team of officers, and committee members for their tireless efforts in organizing this extraordinary event. May this evening’s event be safe and successful in meeting all our goals.

Fortis,

FORTIS FOREVER!

Norman Scott, class of 57
Basil Lawson Anderson was born in Elderslie, St. Elizabeth—a very rural part Jamaica. Basil entered Kingston College in 1958 on a Government Scholarship. He became best friends with Donald Clive Davidson who is currently a Board Member and their friendship continues to this day. He was an exceptional student who excelled in all his subjects, at all levels at K.C. In 1964 he earned a scholarship to Israel Institute of Technology in Haifi, Israel with help from old boy and former honoree, the late Eli Matalon. Basil graduated Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science in Engineering (B.S.E.). It took him one year to earn a Master of Science from the University of Illinois and later an M.B.A. from the University of Chicago.

Mr. Anderson returned to Jamaica in 1971 to work for the ICD Group of Companies chaired by Eli Matalon. He remained there for five years as Market/Financial Analyst. He later joined Scott Paper in Philadelphia, PA. as Management Science Analyst. Later, he was promoted to Head Investor Relations Treasurer, then Vice President and Chief Financial Officer in 1995. He served as Executive Vice President of Campbell Soup Company and Chief Financial Officer, 1996-2001. In 1998 he was awarded best Chief Financial Officer in the world by CFO Magazine.

In 2001 he became Vice Chairman of Staples Inc., a position he occupied until 2006.

Livingstone Young, better known as Danny, was born in Central Kingston, Jamaica. Danny is the first of eight children, three brothers and four sisters, five of whom reside in North America and two who still live in Jamaica. He attended Kingston College from 1962-1968. Danny took an active part in many extracurricular activities. He was a member of the school choir, represented the school in basketball and field hockey, and was one of the youngest players on the basketball team. Basketball was his number one sport, and he remembers Mr. Forrest showing up at his class room to reprimand him and Hugh "Zulu" Ingram for staying at school too late in the evenings playing basketball. At home, he had to create some story to convince his grandmother that he was not wasting time at school. He enjoyed playing and watching sporting activities which overshadowed his classwork. He was also the official cricket scorer for the school and the Kensington Cricket Club. Danny has fond memories of KC, as he learned many of life’s lessons from Douglas Forrest and many of the teachers whom he considers to have been the best. He will never forget when the late Mr. McDonald, during his first Mathematics class in Form 1D, placed a dot above the door header as a reminder of the phrase BODMAS. This was to remind us of the order to follow when doing mathematical calculations. He recalls Friday night choir practices, and the Christmas recitals at State Theatre. Danny was a member of the school choir with many wonderful talented singers like Jeff and Winston Barnes, Franklin Campbell (FAB 5), Ralph and Michael Holding, and Michael Gordon. He also trained for the 800 yards with the track team for few seasons. Although he played several sports, he still found time during summers to do volunteer work at the school along with a few classmates. At the 1967 Prize Giving ceremony, he received a prize for Service to the School. This loyalty and dedication to KC would continue years later.

After leaving Kingston College, he worked for Collector of Customs, Berger Paints and Redimix Concrete, a division of the ICD Group of Companies. As an ardent sports fan, and also played senior league basketball for the Kingston Celtics and field hockey for the Rovers who changed their name to ZEP. He has been a track judge at the annual Gibson relays and was the Secretary of the Jamaican Men’s Hockey Association 1977-78. His keen observations of people, taught him how to eliminate non-productive things that would lead to failures and to pattern those that were considered successful. This prompted him to pursue higher education which started at the University of the West Indies and continued at City University of New York-York College where he attained a BS in Business and Quantitative Methods.

When he first migrated to the USA, he worked as a procurement specialist with an exporter, but pursued additional direct marketing ventures. While attending those business meetings, he met Mitzi Fong whom he married. They have two children, Langston and Jodi. He soon after became a member of KCOB Assn and aligned himself with Karl Hector, Errol Lecky, and Winston Stewart. Danny became an active member of the association and was later drafted to serve

Honoree: Maj. Michael ‘Q’ Bennett

Said that Bishop DeCarteret could see in the future, because he Founded Kingston College thirty two years ahead of a famous person. On that same date in the same Month Mr. & Mrs. Bennett gave birth to their last son and last child who through out childhood was a stutter, a coward and a God fearing man.

Becoming a Catholic at the age of seven and remained throughout his life. He entered Kingston College in 1972 after passing his ninth grade exam. He boasts that he was rebellious from Primary school when they refused to spell his name M-I-C-H-A-E-L. They had it as M-I-C-H-E-A-L they eliminated him from the exams unless he signed and he refused. He continued with this attitude into KC in defending his fellow classmates when they were wrongly accused by teachers.

He joined the Cadet Unit along with 2 other classmates and remained with the Unit until he left school in 1975. And was part of the winning Corp in 1974.

1978 saw the birth of the UNESCO club with him at the helm, in 1978 The Key club lost its Faculty advisor and asked him to take it on and exposed them to outdoor activities which his favourite was. He continued with them on hikes and week ends to Clysdale with other schools such as Holy Childhood and St Andrew High and their Brothers St Georges College. Building leaders was his pet so he encouraged the Cadet Unit seniors to get involved in all activities and fortunately they became executives in the UNESCO and Key Club. He encouraged Dexter Samuels of the UNESCO Club to enter the United Nations Art competition in 1985. He was the winner and earned a trip to UN Headquarters. His encouragements continued through the years to see Edward Parnell first elected Governor. Andrew Baylis becoming the First Outstanding Governor of Key Club Jamaica and the first non American to vie for International President of Key Clubs. In 1988 he was enrolled a Lay Pastor in the Catholic Church and he attained the rank of Captain in the Cadet Force.

Achievements since, is in the achievements of students: Dwayne Rowe top school Boy in Chess, Errol Fisher, Daniel Shaw, Baldwin Dyce, Ricardo Whyte, Dameaine Cawley and now Mark Lewis as Lieutenant Governors. Chevonne Lewis Governor at the same time Head boy of KC, making three Presidents becoming Head boys. He was promoted to the rank of Major in 2000.

The numbers have increased significantly over the years and we now have forty recipients this year from grades eight through to grade thirteen. Joshua Swaby and Jahleel Barrett are members of the Under 14 Cricket Team. Torrain Findley continues his remarkable performance. He is presently the student with the highest average on the North Street Campus and several other awardees are on the school’s Honor Roll.

The chapter continues to support the students in several areas of their school development. They all received backpacks with care products at the start of the school year. Donations of Vitamins were also received. The students were also feted in March and presentations of Laptops were made to Torrain Findley for being the top achiever and Jordon Crawford for being the best Fortis Citizen. Guidance Counsellor.
MAY 1, 1947 was a great day for all Jamaicans. In the Anglican Cathedral at Spanish Town, Percival William Gibson was consecrated as Suffragan Bishop of Kingston; the first time the honor had been conferred on someone of African ancestry in almost one hundred years. For Gibson it was merely another milestone in an illustrious career, which saw him proving beyond any doubt, the capacity of Jamaicans to achieve greatness. Most importantly, he demonstrated the practicability of living a clean, honest life, without any hint of scandal, while rising to the top ranks of civil and ecclesiastical life.

Academic History
Born September 15, 1893 to William and Louise Gibson at the Cavaliers Water Works in Kingston, he attended Mico Practising School and in 1907, won a scholarship to St. George’s College. His parents could not have afforded the fees. Young Gibson never received less than 90 per cent in any subject during the four years before graduating and became one of the first black students admitted to St. Peter’s Anglican Theological College, again on a scholarship. Through private study, he became the first Jamaican to gain the Bachelor of Divinity degree, later also gaining the B.A. and B.A. (Honors) degrees, all through external study. These were landmarks, which inspired future generations of scholars at a time when the handful of black students who could qualify, studied either medicine or dentistry or law. And all had to travel overseas.

Kingston College
As a young curate, he developed a reputation as a hell fire preacher, at St. George’s Church on East Street, where he started outreach programs among the youth. Percival Gibson then developed the goal of working for the City of God through the training of young men of character, who would lift up the morals and lifestyle of the City of Kingston. His inspiration was the book “The City of God” by St. Augustine, an African Father of the mediaeval Christian Church. In 1925 his sister Gwendolyn and himself purchased the Rectory of All Saints Church on East Street, and on April 16, 1949, he enrolled the first 49 boys at the building which he renamed Kingston College. At the time, there were 20 high schools in Jamaica, with a total enrolment of about 1,000. By his death in 1970, Kingston College alone would have over 1,500 students enrolled.

From the beginning, Gibson made it known that the school was not ‘exclusive’, but would accept any boy whose parents could pay. Most of the other schools prided themselves on only taking ‘the right kind’ of students, which was a justification for the class and race prejudice of the day. Nevertheless, his reputation as the country’s greatest classical scholar ensured a steady stream of students of all strata of society.

The first two decades of K.C were a struggle; buoyed only by the motto ‘the brave may fall, but never yield’.
Quotes for the Tribute to Clinton ‘Clarkie’ ‘Fatman’ Clarke

“Yes, ‘Fatman mi bonifi’; Brother from another mother and friend to the end! An excellent advisor and confidant, who had a memory unmatched.

Clarkie, my sparring partner. June 02, almost 1 year now surely gone too soon. Sleep on my brother until we meet again.”

Herman Duhaney

“‘Fatman,’ my big brother, defending me from a bully in 3rd form to giving timely advice as an adult. Exemplary as an Old Boy, selfless, giving and forgiving...One love and Fortis in our lives always”

Omari, Camille, Kerstene & Ivor Nugent

“As a result of Clinton Clarke’s (Fatman) indomitable spirit, commitment, and dedication to our beloved alma mater Kingston College, I now find myself missing his phone calls, mainly referring to some upcoming events. The calls will be essentially be around the following format. ‘You hear about such upcoming event? Don’t worry I have your ticket. How many other will your need? Remember the contribution to KC.’ Anywhere the event was scheduled, New York or Florida, he is committed to be there and always working on others to be there including myself. His presence is a company to enjoy, and to be sure” Fatman” enjoyed a party and its music. Many a discussion entail reminiscing our days at Kingston College, deliberately interjecting a tease on someone in our midst. Clinton ‘Fatman’ Clarke is dearly missed, times spent, and memories recalled are always joyful. Rest well my Friend.”

Wendell F. Martinez

“Clarkie was a gentle giant of a man in sports, in his giving and in his love for Kingston College.”

Leighton Hollar

“He will be greatly missed for his total commitment and dedicated efforts to our alma mater. RIP Fatman. Fortis Forever.”

Jean & Clive Davidson

“‘Fatman,’ my brother from another mother. Our friendship started in 1967 as school mates at Kingston College. There are no words to describe the emptiness you have left in so many lives. You were one of the main links to all the other chapters. It was because of you why I started to take my vacation in October and traveled to Florida to be part of their “Big Purple Session.” We had some great times and fun memories that will always stay with me. I will definitely keep the tradition going in your honor. That is what you would want. Miss you Bro! Rest well”

Joseph Reynolds Class of ’72

“Rest well Clarkie. You served well.”

Everton Howell
Fatman epitomized the soul of the KC Old Boys’ support for the “College”. His fund-raising activities knew no boundaries and he never took no for an answer. He eschewed egoism, broke down barriers and built many fences between those many of us who were so inclined. We will always love you Fatman and try to emulate even a small part of who you were. Continue to rest well my friend.

“Love you my Brother. Will forever miss your friendship and wise council. R.I.P.”
Robert A. Kelly ’73

“Remembering Fatman (Tony, Clarkie) the quintessential Old Boy, whose spirit shall always be omnipresent amongst The K.C. Family” Fortis Always!

“Clarkie,’ in the time I’ve known you, you went from KCBOA board director to uncle, brother, friend and trusted advisor. Rest well. Fortis Forever!”

Perry Rainford Bloomfield, President

“It was Sunday June 2nd, 2013, the day my mother celebrated her 99th birthday. Clinton despite doctor’s orders to take it easy insisted on planning and executing her special birthday. A few hours later our lives changed forever. That was Clinton, a man who makes every effort to complete what he starts.

He has left his “indelible purpleness” in our hearts and in the hearts of his KC family. He is profoundly missed.

My sincere thanks to the KC family who continue to show much love to me and my family. May the good work that you do continue to be a blessing to many.”

Fortis Forever!

Denese Clarke

“Fatman,’ Your advice/council has been priceless R.I.P”

I know you are watching down on us right now. I am crying and smiling thinking about you. Crying to think that we can never replace you and smiling to know that we were privileged to share some great times with you. Clarke I love you. You are a true Fortis. Rest in Peace my brother”

“Fortis Cadere Cedere Non Potest”
Kingston College School Song

By Vivian Virtue

Who would be truly brave must be
Men not afraid to fight and fall
Hearts that unshrinking venture forth
Obedient to the restless call
Of God and country and of truth
In burning faith and abounding work
God gives us such courageous youth
As never shall that challenge shirk.
Not for the swift alone the race
Nor for the strong the battle’s cry
Not every hero bears the palm
Where ringing plaudits fill the sky
God makes us such as in the fight
Though thrown upon the adverse field
Rise up in God’s courageous might
The brave that will not ever yield.

Sung to the tune of “Jerusalem”.

Fortis Prayer

By Brian Morrison

Father we come to you
Solemnly praying for guidance.
Lead us dear Lord and Savior
To a higher level of understanding
And discipline. Perpetually open
Our hearts to your teachings.
Give us faith to believe in what
We can accomplish and wisdom
When pondering each difficult task.
Bless our deliberations and Inspire hope, knowing our
Work shall not be in vain.
Bless each of us present
As well as those absent.
Remove all tension within
And amongst us dear Lord
So that charity – God’s greatest gift
Will abound in our hearts,
And in our souls, Forever Fortis

Amen

Jamaican Pride

National Anthem

Eternal Father bless our land,
Guard us with Thy Mighty Hand,
Keep us free from evil powers,
Be our light through countless hours.
To our Leaders, Great Defender,
Grant true wisdom from above.
Justice, Truth be ours forever,
Jamaica, Land we love.
Jamaica, Jamaica, Jamaica land we love.
Teach us true respect for all,
Stir response to duty’s call,
strengthen us the weak to cherish,
Give us vision lest we perish.
Knowledge send us Heavenly Father,
Grant true wisdom from above.
Justice, Truth be ours forever,
Jamaica, land we love.
Jamaica, Jamaica, Jamaica land we love.

On the Audit Committee, he worked with Ben Grant and Karl Scott to review the financial reports to make sure the association was in full compliance with the By-Laws and IRS 501(c)(3) status. That very distinct aroma...
Their motherly embrace...
Like magnet to steel
I cannot help but yield.
Yes! Because of them
We were made strong.

To protect and honor.

“Fortis”
Congratulations to the entire Fortis Family on this the 31st Reunion & Awards Dinner, sponsored by KCOBANY. Special congratulations to Mr. Donovan Davis, the Kingston College Track & Field coach, who first fielded a Jamaican high school team at the Penn Relays fifty years ago, thereby setting an example for other Jamaican high school teams who, along with KC have so distinguished themselves there.

As Kingston College celebrates almost 90 years of excellence, I am proud to be a member of the Fortis Family and to acknowledge a great debt of gratitude to our alma mater. May we continue to work together to promote and support Kingston College for generations to come.

FORTIS FOREVER!

Congratulations

Mr Michael “D” Bennett on your award.

We thank you for your service, dedication, leadership and teaching in and out of the classroom.

We are grateful for your guidance, support and encouragement. We honor you today as an educator

AN URGENT APPEAL

We need $5M to purchase Two Linear Accelerator Machines for Jamaica

I am appealing to everyone especially our Caribbean brothers and sisters. I have been asked to purchase a Linear Accelerator Machine for Cornwall Regional Hospital in Montego Bay, Jamaica costing approximately US $5 Million. I met with the minister of Health, Dr. Fenton Ferguson a few weeks ago. He asked if I can purchase two machines as Kingston needs one also.

If 500,000 people give a one-time donation of $10, we will be closer to our goal.

Please send donations to
Vincent HoSang Family Foundation (VHFF),
117 Route 303, Suite B, Tappan, NY 10983.
Your donation is tax deductible.

Thanks for your kind support.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES
These financial statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). They are expressed in Jamaican dollars.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented unless otherwise stated.

Recognition of Revenue
Revenue comprises the fair value of the consideration received or receivable from the Trust’s investment activities.

Interest income is recognised in the statement of income and expenses for all interest bearing instruments on an accrual basis using the effective yield on the actual purchase price. Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established.
Acknowledgements

In God We Trust
First we must acknowledge God’s merciful kindness for sparing our lives and allowing us to be part of this 31st reunion of KCOBA USA Inc. We are aware that He has preserved us through no goodness of our own but because of His loving kindness and tender mercies. For what we have been able to accomplish we give Him thanks.

Individuals
There were many individuals who provided financial, physical, moral and material support to KCOBA during this fiscal year. The list of individuals is very extensive making this medium most impractical. However, KCOBA USA Inc., the students faculty and staff are most grateful for your assistance. Without your support the many successes that we enjoy would not be possible. We also wish, through this medium, to express our deepest gratitude to all K.C. Old Boys and their families; supporters; friends; and, well wishers of KCOBA, for facilitating our efforts to help Kingston College and keeping alive the dream of our founding Headmaster, the late Bishop Percival William Gibson.

We are mindful of the energy and enthusiasm our new board members have brought to the association and look forward to the immediate future when they will take their rightful place at the helm of KCOBA USA Inc.

Businesses
KCOBA again received significant support from the business community this year and we are indeed very appreciative. In turn, the Board strongly encourages all members of KCOBA and their families and friends, to patronize them frequently. We know these are challenging economic times and we appreciate their loyalty.

Joint Effort by the Associations
We are proud of the partnership that has been forged with all Chapters, including those based in North America and Jamaica. We have maintained open and honest dialog all year. We have worked jointly on numerous projects. We have kept each other informed on all our proposed activities and we have not been shy to seek help from each other when the need has arisen. We expect that this coordinated effect will continue and the bonds that we have forged will transcend our generation. We hope to build on the strong relationship that currently exists between our associations. I am proud to recognize that two of the three issues that remained outstanding, the new School bus and permanent Principal were achieved. Still remaining outstanding is the completion of the Douglas Forrest Building – a key component of the KC Library & Technology Capital Campaign. With your continued support we are hopeful of accomplishing that objective before the end of 2014.

Spouses & Families
Being a KCOBA board member has many attendant responsibilities and without the support of spouses, companions and children it would be difficult to fulfill our obligations. We thank you for your love, patience and understanding.

Blessings & Fortis
KCOBA Board of Directors
